

SCFC personnel listen as Incident Commander Mike Bozzo speaks at a morning briefing during the Pinnacle Mountain Fire in November 2016.

Incident Commander Jonathan Calore outlines the day's search-and-rescue operations at a briefing at the Columbia Fire Department.

At the Columbia airport, IMT members await evacuated patients from the devastation caused by Hurricane Maria in Puerto Rico in 2017.

A wildland firefighter pumps water from a stream to reinforce fire breaks at the Pinnacle Mountain Fire.

SCFC crews work to remove debris in Columbia after the historic flooding caused by Hurricane Joaquin in 2015.

IMT members prepare for deployment to Beaumont, Texas in the wake of flooding caused by Hurricane Maria in 2017.

Public Information Officer Doug Wood speaks to a reporter during the early days of the Pinnacle Mountain Fire.

SCFC tractor-plow units are lined up and ready for action at the Highway 31 Fire in 2009.

